the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase to 15.5 million by 2020, and the number of people aged 75 and over to 8.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000). The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is expected to be due to a combination of factors, including a decline in the birth rate, a decline in the death rate, and a decline in the rate of emigration.

The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is expected to have a significant impact on the UK's economy and society. The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is expected to lead to a decline in the number of people in the workforce, which will lead to a decline in the number of people who are able to pay taxes. This will lead to a decline in the amount of money that is available to fund public services, including the National Health Service (NHS). The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is also expected to lead to a decline in the number of people who are able to support themselves, which will lead to a decline in the number of people who are able to pay for their own care and support.

The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is also expected to lead to a decline in the number of people who are able to work, which will lead to a decline in the number of people who are able to pay taxes. Same old school, same old faces, same old classes right? Wrong! No year is exactly like another and this was certainly different. Many changes came about—and people barely noticed them.

A new varsity basketball coach, a new band director, and other new teachers were a few of the faces that we'd seen this year. For these people, it wasn't just another year, it was a new beginning. For the freshmen coming from other schools, it was a totally new place, and a totally different year.

Several of the familiar sites around Whiting have changed a little also. The addition on the library and the building of new stores uptown were being completed as the year progressed. A new video room was built by the students of wood shop, several computers were purchased, and colorful lockers were installed over Christmas vacation. There were a few other minor changes also, but all together things looked a bit different around school this year.

Even though this year might have looked the same at first, there was definitely something different about 1982. Because with all of the various people, new friends and teachers, and the successes we'd had, IT WASN'T JUST ANOTHER YEAR!

ANOTHER YEAR

STUDENT LIFE

WHERE DID THE

At the July 4th carnival, G. Riggins and N. Polak show off their prizes.

Summer is the season every student looks forward to during the school year. Unfortunately, for the W.H.S. students, summer doesn't last long enough.

Three days after school let out, students were back in school, either working, attending summer school, or taking a course in Driver's Ed.

You know that school is approaching when July 4th rolls around. This year's July 4th parade can be described in one word—"WET". Despite the rain, the people of Whiting enjoyed themselves, in the evening, at the annual carnival at Whiting Park.

Despite the rain, D. Yanas finds time to smile.

At the Calumet College Superfest, J. Filipek and L. Danielides prepare food.

SUMMER GO?

The Junior Class has fun raising money at their car wash.

K. Carroll and K. Guyre check the oil in their Driver's Ed. car.

After the new carpeting was installed in the Study Hall, A. Renda returns the desks to their original places.

Senior girls enjoy a return to the Renaissance at King Richard's Fair.

JR. SR. PROM: A NIGHT

May 15 marked a special night for all who attended the 1981 Jr. Sr. prom. The Juniors chose "Stairway to Heaven" as the theme of this year's prom. Burgundy and silver were the colors of the prom. A winding stairway, silver palm trees, and a hanging moon decorated the walls of Wicker Park. Music was provided by the ORIGINALS.

As the clock struck midnight happy couples departed with fond memories that won't soon be forgotten.

T. Boyle and J. Justak pose for a quick picture before attending prom.

As the prom finally begins, A. Curosh and S. Flores take advantage of a slow dance.

J. Sotello tells D. Kapitan his plans for after prom.

The night's entertainment was provided by a hypnotist. These volunteers are starting to awake at the count of three.

J. Kasper, B. Dado, M. Williamson, and L. Haviley wait for the band to arrive.

TO REMEMBER

Prom couples are alone at last on a quiet dance floor.

Tender moments are shared by D. Holden and M. Rancich.

Standing by the stairway, a happy D. Kristek and E. Guajardo show that they are having a good time.

T. Gabrish and J. Fritz relax after their dinner.

HOMEcoming 1981 . . . AN

Homecoming nominees eagerly await the announcement of the queen.

Spirit Week, rivalry and floats were only a part of Homecoming 1981.

The halls were decorated with signs, streamers, and students dressed according to "spirit days." Mix and Match day, Western day, Character day, and Green and White day all made up "Spirit Week."

The efforts of the Senior Class paid off when they captured 1st place for their float "Smoke Em", and their car, "Barbeque thoz Eagles." This year the Spirit Stick was awarded to the Sophomores. The annual game was highlighted by the crowning of Queen Paula Senics and Mr. Football John Burosh. The Oilers suffered a bitter defeat to Lake Station. The final score was 14-8.

The following night all sorrows were forgotten when students danced to the music provided by NETWORK.

The Junior class gets rowdy on their colorful float.

Seniors fire up on the winning float entitled "Smoke Um!"

UNFORGETTABLE WEEK

Junior girls decorate their hallway during spirit week.

1981 court from L-R is C. Rodriguez, L. Vargas, P. Wajvoda, Queen P. Senics, M. Rancich, C. Odlivak.

Oilers get together to show their spirit at the pep assembly.

TOMORROW'S DREAM

A night of romance at the Sectional Sweetheart dance.

The theme of the Sectional Sweetheart dance was Tomorrow's Dream, and two dreams did come true. During the half-time of the Lew Wallace basketball game, it was announced that Roberta Tenorio was selected as the 1982 Sectional Sweetheart. Following that announcement came another, the name of 1982 Mr. Basketball, Andrew Curosh.

After the photographs were taken, the queen and her court left the floor. The Oilerettes then danced onto the floor, performing to the music of Genesis.

The following night the Sectional Sweetheart dance was held in the boys' gym. Everyone enjoyed themselves to the music of Power Struggle.

The festivities were all centered around the boys' upcoming basketball Sectional, in which the boys would be defending their Sectional Championship of 1981.

Class attendants and their escorts (l to r): Freshman, T. Johnson and T. Reyna; Sophomore, P.

Wilkening and D. Brown; Junior, S. Pivovarnik and M. Wunder.

The 1982 Mr. Basketball, Andrew Curosh and the Sectional Sweetheart, Roberta Tenorio.

Those freshmen girls know how to liven' up a dance.

R. Siera is doing her thing.

J. Fritz and T. Gabrish are dreaming about tomorrow.

Senior nominees for Sectional Sweetheart (l to r): J. Justak, Sectional Sweetheart—R. Tenorio, and E. Guajardo.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE ALOT OF GUTS

Have you ever walked through the halls of Whiting and seen a girl wearing knickers, or wearing a different style of shoes that you wouldn't wear? You'd probably think that these people have alot of guts, but not really. It is just the fashion! They are comfortable enough to wear it and they usually start a new trend.

Examples of some fashions are, cow-boy boots, izod and rainbow shirts, boat shoes, and monogrammed sweaters.

So if you are a punk rocker or a preppie, "Congratulations for having the guts," if you're not one, maybe you should try it.

Showing their knickers are D. Rogers, K. Carroll, and J. Fritz.

Showing you the popular rainbow shirt is J. Filipek.

After finishing up the last step, B. Pustek and G. Kuss, solve the cube.

Displaying his Izod shirt is P. Gurekovich; L. Ruzich shows her ski sweater.

These feet are modeling the different styles of shoes.

AFTER THE 3:00 BELL

D. Williams gives her customer her break today.

After the 3:00 bell rings, many students have different things that they do.

Most students just go home and sit around, but others have jobs, work out in the gym, or hold fund-raising projects.

Sporting events also take place after school. Many hours are spent practicing and participating in sports.

Helping out at the Hoosier, M. Johnson, sells refreshments.

After school, Gaeco is on her way to another track meet.

Selling goodies after school is S. Rokosz, at a freshman bake sale.

AREA IMPROVEMENTS

C. Zahorsky and B. Dado help put finishing touches on the library.

This was a year of changes. Some of the improvements in the Whiting area are: the renovated library, the senior and junior high's new lockers, the building of Walgreens and McCrorys, the sport audio-visual room, new video equipment, and also computers for the computer class.

M.K. Hruskocy and B. Filipek make use of the renovated library's material.

After three months, P. Wajvoda notices the senior-junior high's new lockers.

J. Justak and D. Williams on the location of the new Walgreens.

Of course, P. Bachusz and B. Carter know how to use the new computers. They're taking a computer class.

Working on the sport's audio-visual room is D. Polak.

B. Evanich demonstrates the use of the video recorder to J. Preneta.

TEACHERS GET BY WITH A LITTLE HELP!

Every year students give up part of their school time to help out teachers. These aides help students having problems with their subjects.

They also aid Miss Sheldon in the school library by putting books back on the shelves and providing her with help she may need.

Whiting also has monitors that collect absentee slips and then record them in the attendance book.

Monitors (l-r): K. Mahony, J. Huckaby, and J. Macak.

Teachers' Aides (1st row, l-r): J. Carroll, L. Tinsley, (2nd row) J. Justak, B. Dado, D. Strbiak, (3rd row) J. Simants, F. Knott, B. Koleszarik.

Library assistants (sitting l-r): R. Tenorio, L. Tinsley, C. Zahorsky, A. Westerfield, (Standing) K.

Kusbel, J. Justak, R. Macko.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

K. Kuss checks to make sure the popcorn is hot.

An important part of every basketball and football game is the concession stand. Every halftime Karen Kuss, Gary Stevenson, Pam Stincic, and Peggy Winn stand behind the counter with Mr. and Mrs. Sorota trying to serve all the hungry people before halftime is over.

No matter how busy they get, you can be sure that at Whiting, you will get service with a smile.

S. Harbin sneaks a snickers for himself.

G. Stevenson and P. Winn wait for the customers to make up their minds.

Getting a hot dog for a hungry customer is P. Stincic.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

Behind every game, match, or meet there is always someone taking statistics. At Whiting, these girls are called "Stat Girls" or "Mat Maids".

These girls always find time to make it to every sporting event to keep stats for the coaches. Many people appreciate these statistics, especially the players, so they will know what they did during the game.

Although it looks easy, it's a tough job.

Baseball and Cross Country stat girls are: J. Fritz, A. Obermiller, K. Shebish.

Frosh basketball stats are: J. Justak, M. Fitzpatrick Absent: K. Saksa.

The Varsity boys' basketball stat girls are: (1st row) C. Odzivak, A. Obermiller, M. Dominguez, N. Cornelius, L. Haviley (2nd row) Alt. S. Pivovarnik.

Girls' basketball stats are: (1st row) M.K. Hruskocy, A. Obermiller, P. Wajvoda, (2nd row) M. Klein, D. Close, N. Cornelius, S. Rokosz.

The Mat Maids are: (1st row) L. Gormley, M.J. Grdina, P. Renda, K. Carroll, (2nd row) A. Renda, L. Guajardo, K. Clark, E. Rodriguez, Spon. Coach Rebey (3rd row) D. Wood, J. Ciers, D. Siriblak, C. Stincic

Stat girls show that it isn't all hard work.

EFFORTS BRING AWARDS,

Students who had worked hard and put in many long hours were rewarded for their outstanding effort in academic achievements.

Some earned a scholarship "W" for maintaining a "B" average or higher for an entire year.

Teachers voted on students that showed certain qualities as Boys' and Girls' state Representatives and Alternates.

Nancy Cornelius was named the recipient of the DAR award. Another award, the Hugh O'Brian, was won by Becky Mateja.

Senior N. Cornelius was awarded the Daughters of the American Revolution award.

Academic All State awards in Basketball were given to J. Filipek (honorable mention), T. Gabrish, and A. Curosh (honorable mention).

Sophomore Scholarship "W" winners (first row, L. to R.): P. Stincic, H. Ulloa, B. Mateja, S. Ulloa, (second row): T. Gazda, D. Kovacek, C. Gregor, and J. Filipek.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS TO STUDENTS

Senior Scholarship "W" winners (L. to R.): P. Jaroszewicz, M. Jerzyk, N. Cornelius, and J. Simants.

Hoosier State Alternates (L. to R.): E. Wunder, J. Kasper, P. Senics, and M. Jerzyk.

Hoosier State Representatives (L. to R.): N. Cornelius, J. Simants, D. Yanas, and T. Gabrish.

Junior Scholarship "W" winners; P. Renda, and E. Yocum.

ACADEMICS

"Of course I know my parts of speech, Mr. Ulrich", says J. Sotello.

J. Justak plays back a taping of the radio play "Rip Van Winkle".

English is an important subject at Whiting High. Seven semesters are required to graduate. Freshman to senior year students keep busy writing compositions, giving book reviews, learning speech skills, and improving their grammar.

Freshman year is devoted to learning the fundamentals of English. Mrs. DePeugh's speech students gain confidence in speaking before groups. Junior year is spent studying America's greatest stories, and senior year prepares you for the future, business or college.

This year the English department gained a new face. Miss Wozniak has obtained the position of the retired Mr. Kompier.

M. Aicher listens in on J. Kometz's instructions for K. Brimer.

TALK

Sophomore speech students act out their required pantomime.

In the library, P. Stincic finds answers to her grammar assignment.

R. Tenorio types her term paper for Rhetoric English.

Mrs. Hanis gives extra help to D. Bobos and C. Klein.

COUNT ME IN!

The math department this year has many new things to offer, such as, a new Apple computer and two new remedial math courses.

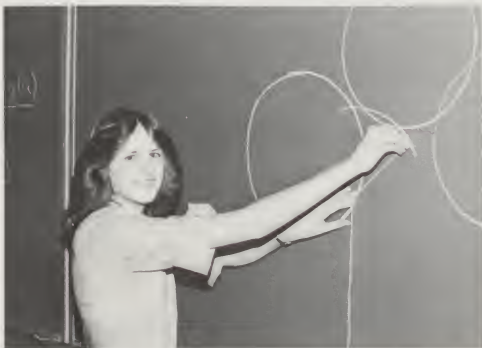

At W.H.S. there are different levels of math for different occupational pursuits.

The computer will be not only used by the math department, it will also be used by the entire school.

K. Gyure shows how to use the new computer.

P. Gurekovich tries to figure out where he went wrong.

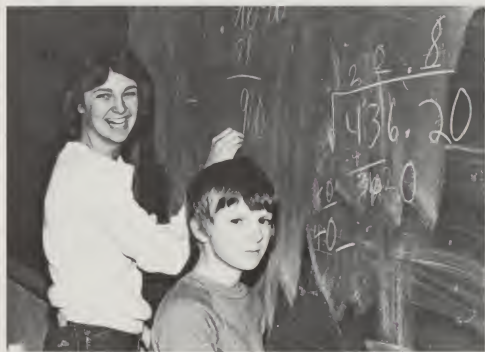

K. Kuss must think she is going around in circles in geometry.

V. Montero tries a new method to work out coin problems in Algebra.

V. Jakubik and P. Lund find the area of the inside box.

Do you think A. Postell and M. Rowden know what they are doing? Don't let them fool you.

J. Copeland shows how to use a protractor in geometry.

WE HAVE THE TECHNOLOGY

At Whiting you have the option of taking five courses in science.

In general science, you learn the fundamental laws and principles of science. In biology, usually taken sophomore year, you learn basically about the plant and animal life. During the junior year, students are taught how to mix chemicals to form different elements in chemistry. As seniors, adv. chemistry and physics are available to the students. In these courses, you learn how to determine different elements and the laws that govern the earth.

Showing how to heat a substance the correct way is K. Mahony.

Mrs. Gergel shows B. Evanich and M. Harbin how to use the weighing scale.

"What is this thing?" wonders a couple of biology students.

After mixing the chemicals, D. Kapitan looks in the book to see what she does next.

J. Burosh and Nancy Cornelius find "Time" to experiment in Physics Lab.

While G. Koleszarik pours the acid, L. Gormley holds the bottle still.

C. Gregor wonders which bone he broke.

PAST TO PRESENT

A. Obermiller puts the finishing touches on her export map in economics.

Social studies is a series of courses from careers to economics. Freshmen begin with a semester of careers, where they learn what types of occupations they would like to enter. Next, is civics which discusses the origin of our state and national government.

The sophomores study world history. It offers them an opportunity to become involved in the world around them.

Colonial life and birth of the United States government are the essentials in a junior's study of American History.

Economics gives the senior students a better understanding of our economic institutions. They also learn about the form and function of American government by taking a one semester course in government.

B. Dunn takes a firm stand on the Bill of Rights.

F. Knott realizes that current events is an important part of any social studies class.

B. Justak and D. Close find an opportunity to look for future careers.

Seeking information for American history is C. Carroll's way of keeping busy.

Consumer education is a difficult subject for C. Vavrek.

J. Kasper and C. Odjivak fight over war and peace in government class.

FOREIGN FUN WITH A FLAIR

Although Spanish and German are two different languages and cultures; learning them can be the same process.

The first year stresses the different Spanish and German sounds from the English sounds. The also do oral readings.

Entering the second year, stress is put on vocabulary and sentence structure. Reading material becomes more difficult but the knowledge accumulated makes the study enjoyable.

During the third year, practically all work is completed in the languages and much is learned about the cultures.

D. Banaszak learns to conjugate verbs in Spanish I.

"Should I raise a stein and drink a beer?" thinks L. Bucko in German I.

In Spanish II, S. Blesik and J. Chorba learn about Mexico and its cultures.

Speaking only in Spanish, third year Spanish students take time out for a quick pic.

R. Rutherford helps Mr. Ulrich display Deutschland to German 1 class.

T. Evanich demonstrates how to use the Spanish lab.

These students dress up to represent Germany's culture.

TODAY'S STUDENTS . . . TOMORROW'S BUSINESSMEN

For those students who plan to work after high school, a business curriculum is a must.

This year new electric typewriters were an addition to the typing classes, making it easier for some to type.

Taking business classes are not just for the business minded students. Students with college prep courses also take typing and shorthand to help them with term papers and to make it easier to take notes.

M. McGowan practices keeping her eye on the copy.

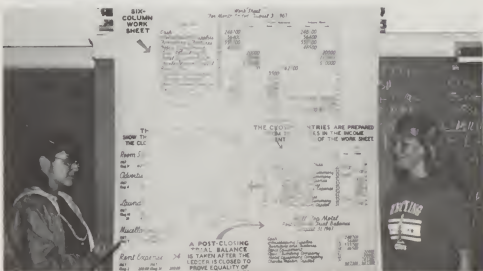

In Shorthand II, M. Jerzyk take dictation from a tape recorder.

Listening intently while Mr. Faulkner explains the principles of bookkeeping and accounting are C. Cribari and M. Fitzpatrick.

These students show how to insert the paper properly before showing their typing skill.

"Board" with shorthand is K. Carroll and M. McGowan.

B. Daly shows how he can type 30 w.p.m. with one hand.

Two students, C. Stincin and J. Ciers, explain how to close a ledger in bookkeeping.

MUSIC IS A

Music and Art which are both a one semester course are two of the most enjoyed classes at W.H.S.

In Music class you learn how to read notes and you also learn about some composers. There is also a Chorus class for students who are interested in a future teaching of music and voice.

After showing basic talents with crayons, chalk, paints, etc. in your first year of art, students may also challenge themselves by taking advanced art or Ceramics.

Checking out the latest hit songs of Richard Strauss are E. Hruskocy, D. Bobos, and C. Pope.

Being fascinated by her work of art, N. Henson discovers a hidden talent.

These ceramic students give their opinion on each other's projects.

FINE "ART"

Helping Mrs. D put up some artwork are J. Puente and R. Livingston.

These freshman music students are showing their fellow classmates how to play an instrument.

Giving the music teacher a hand, T. O'Keefe changes an album.

Creating his "mess-terpiece," R. Kuss has fun fingerpainting.

GETTING IN SHAPE

The physical education program was designed to help students get into shape, and to teach them to know their bodies, and how they function. A wide variety of activities is offered in gym class. A few things to do are swimming, running, exercising, weightlifting, and team sports.

P.E. seems to be a favorite course here. But health class on the other hand, has been considered to be a pretty tough subject. For example: How many muscles and bones are in the human body? How many organs? Systems? For the answers to these questions and others you might not know, health is the place to learn them.

Advanced P.E. student, S. Flores fills up a volleyball.

The boys try to show the girls who are the champs in volleyball.

AND KNOWING WHY

D. Pauley and C. Tittle warm-up before taking their daily lap.

Swimming is another activity enjoyed in gym class.

A. McHale and J. Macak welcome two new pupils into health class.

THE WORKING WORLD—

The cooking class learns to use different tools in cooking such as blenders, mixers, measuring cups, etc. They also learn how to bake certain foods or how to make delicious hors'de vours. Their recipes are just as appetizing as Julia Childes.

Sewing class is also taught by Miss Kowal. The students learn how to set patterns, cut material, and use the sewing machines. Sewing is a class where you can use creative ideas for designing new fashions in clothes and it helps to prepare you possibly for becoming another Gloria Vanderbilt or Calvin Klein.

The Industrial Arts classes consist of Print Shop, Machines, Metals, Woods, and Drafting. Each class has their own set of machinery. Wood Shop was furnished with a new wood planer this past year.

Mr. Rebey, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Poropat are the teachers for these Classes. With their widespread knowledge of teaching, the students learn how to use the machinery skillfully and carefully. Each person will have the ability to go out on his own into carpentry, steel mills, or even architecture.

R. Mindas is taking a break from welding a cabinet door to the hinged.

Sewing students take a quick glance at the camera before measuring their patterns for a 3-piece suit they're making.

It looks like R. Kantowski is cooking under pressure again.

FROM THE INSIDE AND OUT

"Hey! Let go of my arm!" shouts a painful G. Grdina as A. Curosh grins deviously while pulling the wood through the wood planer.

Can G. Koleszarik and A. Campos possibly be the new Cinderellas at work?

Mr. Rebey shows two students how to cut the wood evenly.

T. Gazda shows how to find the setting on the machine cutter.

MAKING HEADLINES

Looking through old yearbooks are P. Gurekovich and P. Senics.

M. Hruskocy meets typing deadlines.

Reflector staff (l. to r.) J. Kometz, K. Kubacki, M. Postell, L. Haviley, P. Senics, M. Rancich, M.

L. Gacsko and L. Haviley are kept busy organizing advertisements.

Editor K. Shebish finally gives in to the camera.

J. Fritz puts the final adjustments on her layout.

Did you ever ask yourself, "Exactly who works on Whiting High School's yearbook?" That question is easily answered, the Reflector staff.

This year's staff is composed of 16 students who contribute their originality to every layout they do. These students are kept busy September thru March so the yearbooks are ready to be distributed before summer vacation begins. The class is supervised by Mr. Paul Laub.

The appointed editor, Karen Shebish, attended Indiana University's Journalism Camp. There she learned the proper techniques used in forming a yearbook.

VOICE OF

Voice of the Oilers is the new motto of the Tattler, which is the school's newspaper. The staff has many new members. Different people are in charge of various departments. Some sections of the paper include sports, features, and news. They have to meet deadlines and have the paper printed and ready to distribute to the students. Staff members also go to local merchants for ads to support the Tattler. Many students await the holiday editions of the Tattler. One money-making project is the dime-a-lines, in the Valentine's Day edition.

Editor, N. Cornelius discusses a problem with her advisor Mrs. Hanis.

The Tattler staff includes front row l to r: N. Cornelius, A. Renda, P. Jaroszewicz, P. Renda, C. Odilvak, J. Kasper, J. Macak, M. Harbin, M. Wunder, J. Winebrenner, N. Fehrman, B. Harding.

"Making the headlines", is M. Harbin.

M. Harbin and M. Wunder turn to past Tattlers for some ideas.

THE OILERS

Editor N. Cornelius shows her reaction to some suggestions.

While in the darkroom, J. Winebrenner, Tattler's photographer uses the enlarger to size a picture.

P. Renda uses her typing skills in Tattler.

YEA, RAH, TEAM!

During the summer, B-squad and Varsity cheerleaders decorated a truck and entered it in the 4th of July parade.

Loyalty, leadership, scholarship, and ability comprised the list of qualifications for cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders of W.H.S. showed very much enthusiasm at football and basketball games. Besides cheering the team on, it was their duty to boost the crowd's spirit.

Win or lose, cheerleaders smiled proudly, showing the true Oiler spirit.

Varsity cheerleader Debbie Harris.

Varsity cheerleader Paula Senics.

Varsity cheerleader Stella Flores.

B-squad cheerleaders (top to bottom): S. Simants, B. Mateja, M. Postell, R. Kantowski, M.K. Hruskocy.

Freshmen cheerleaders (top to bottom): T. Marcotte, S. Ulm, K. Linko, D. Fitzpatrick.

Varsity cheerleader Melena Rancich.

Varsity cheerleader Kelly Mahony.

Cheerleaders cheer the Oilers onto another victory.

PRACTICE MAKES

The Oilerettes are composed of flags and poms. The Oilerettes are now under the leadership of Danni McKinney.

Being an Oilerette is not all fun and games. Practice commences every morning at 7:00 a.m. Uniforms must be cleaned and pressed as well as the flags.

Getting up early, or practicing in the summer heat may not be too rewarding, but after a good performance and a warm applause, Oilerettes feel it was well worth it.

Oilerettes perform to the beat of the band at a home football game.

Officers of the Oilerettes are (L to R): R. Sierra and D. Yanas.

Keeping time to the music is a quality the Oilerettes display.

Flag girls are lining up on the field.

A. Renda concentrates on her routine.

WINTER, SPRING, SUMMER, AND FALL

The Whiting High School Marching Band.

Mr. Boyd is pleased with another band performance.

As the seasons change so does the band. When the school year begins in the Fall, the band is hard at work practicing marching. They provide the half-time show at the football games. As the snow falls and the basketball season approaches, the band moves indoors. The Pep Band adds to the excitement of the game. With Christmas fast approaching, the Concert Band starts preparing for their Christmas concert. As Winter changes to Spring, the concert Band again begins the task of presenting the Spring concert. When vacation starts, and the summer sun is hot, the Marching Band takes on the chore of leading the Whiting 4th of July Parade.

Directing the band in his first year is Mr. Steven Boyd. Under his direction members of the band traveled to the WJOB radio station. There they entertained listeners with Christmas music.

Band officers are: L. to R. Pres. L. Gacsko, Sec. D. McGowan, Tres. K. Carroll. Rogers, Band Director S. Boyd, Vice Pres. M.

—THE BAND DOES IT ALL

These band members sure know how to get fired up.

T. Gazda is wide-awake for morning practice.

The drum section keeps a steady beat while playing a Christmas song.

M. McGowan is an ideal Drum Majorette.

BOOSTER CLUB BOOSTS MORALE OF ATHLETES

The main purpose of the Booster Club is to raise the morale of the school. The cheering block tries to back the team on to victory; however, win or lose, the school is still behind them.

One of the main things the Booster Club did this year was to decorate the Homecoming attendant's float. The Booster Club also organized the annual Homecoming parade, and sponsored the annual Sectional Sweetheart Dance.

This year the sponsorship was taken on by Miss Carol Kowal.

Booster Club members are: (top to bottom l-r) R. Kantowski, J. Justak, M. Grdina, P. Renda, A. McHale, P. Wilkening, S. Ulloa, H. Ulloa, D. Dobrowolski, D. Wood, M. Hruskocy, L. Gascos, J. Fritz, C. Zahorsky, M. Fitzpatrick, D. Rogers,

"W" Club officers are (L-R): S. Pivovarnik, Secretary-Treasurer; Mr. Rebey, Sponsor; A. Curosh,

President; C. Odilivak, Vice-President.

The "W" Club consists of all students active in sports who have met the requirements to receive a letter. After a letter is awarded, members are able to purchase a sweater and/or jacket. Seven letters enable one to receive a green "W".

Mr. William Rebey is the club sponsor once again. The basic intent of this club is to keep busy all the members in athletic events, and to keep an interest in athletics at Whiting High School.

Club member M. Beno boosts spirit of club and class.

STUDENTS WORK TO IMPROVE SCHOOL

The Student Council is formed by elected representatives from each home-room. The students discuss the problems and bring up their ideas of how they could improve the school.

The Student Council also sponsors all Homecoming activities and the Home-room Volleyball Tournament.

The Student Council sponsor is Mr. Kountoures.

The Student Council has a student exchange week. During that week the representatives go to different schools to get new ideas for our school, and students from other schools come to our school, hoping to impart new ideas to Whiting High students.

Student Council representatives: (bottom l to r) D. Kristek, J. Macak, G. Grdina, M. Rancich, D. Harris, M. Dominguez, J. Jefchak, L. Tenorio,

Each year teachers choose students from the Junior and Senior classes to become members of the National Honor Society. These students are chosen by their scholastic achievement, character, leadership, and service to the school.

Each year the members have two initiations. First, is a formal initiation performed by the old members; second, is an informal initiation during school.

The formal initiation is held after school. Parents are invited to attend this ceremony. This initiation stresses solemnity of the organization.

The informal initiation is held during school. The new members wear black robes, do peculiar things, and answer questions about various topics.

New members include (1st row): M. Grdina, L. Haviley, J. Fritz, P. Renda, K. Shebish, K. Carroll, (2nd row) J. Kasper, J. Buranosky, A. Curosh, B. Evanich, B. Pustek. Not pictured: M. McGowen.

"OF CHORUS" WE CAN SING

Chorus is a class where students practice singing and prepare themselves to perform during a band and chorus concert. There usually is a concert each semester. First semester they perform a Christmas concert and then second semester a spring concert.

Many hours are spent rehearsing out of school. Members use their lunch hour and after school time to practice their songs.

During the Christmas season the chorus class travels to the Convalescent Home and performs their Christmas carols for the older people.

The Chorus is directed by Miss Benson.

Performing at their Christmas concert the chorus sings carols.

All around the piano the members rehearse their songs.

Practicing on their own time are D. Fitzpatrick, L. Vargas, and G. Jambik.

A. Renda takes a break during lunch hour practice.

JUST PUTTING ON AN ACT

This year the Drama Club held its 2nd Annual Talent Show. The first place winner was Roberta Tenorio, who danced to the song, "Titles", from the movie CHARLOTS OF FIRE. The highlight of the show was The Croakridge Boys who sang "Elvira."

Last year, during the spring, the Club presented the play, "The Odd Couple", with Jim Broderick and Steve Parker in the lead roles. This play was a huge success.

This spring they plan on another play, to be directed by Ms. Wozniak.

On a mission from God, were the Blues Brothers, L. Haviley and L. Gacsko.

J. Simants, J. Macak, and M. Otic play their cards right.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS: BIGGER AND BETTER

Members include (t-b, l-r): W. Larson, K. Gyure, K. Hansen, B. Bailey, A. Vasquez, J. Semanchik, J. Rodgers, B. Koleszarik, D. Kristek, G. Grdina, M. Senics, P. Grigoriadis, D.

Polak, D. Harris, G. Kuss, J. Witczak, J. Flores, C. Sarvanidis, M. Dominquez, R. Tenorio, A. Campos.

Starting it's eighth year, the Industrial Arts Club is increasing in size. Students are beginning to understand and appreciate the craftsmanship of the club, and that is sure to mean success.

This year the club entered it's annual club car in the Homecoming Parade. Unlike last year's misfortune, the car started and won the award for the Best Club Car.

A fund raiser was held in the spring to raise money for the motor in their car. They made money different articles which they sold. The club also held it's annual skating party, and a cookout to top off a perfect year.

M. Senics enjoys wood shop.

SPANISH CLUB GETS SLOW START

Though the Spanish Club got a slow start this year, they are still the largest organization in the school. As a result of the slow start, the club was unable to present a float in the annual homecoming parade, but was represented by a car.

They held their annual Christmas party on Wednesday Dec. 16. They also sponsored a couple of field trips and a dance.

The club ran into some early problems but the officers and members worked hard to make sure the Spanish Club remains popular.

Spanish Club officers are: P. Stincic, Vice President; S. Rokosz, Freshman Representative; Mr. Taylor, Sponsor; T. Evanich, President; M. Grenchik, Freshman Representative; K. Brimer, Clerk Treasurer.

THE SPIRIT BEHIND THE TEAM

Cheerleaders lead cheers, but who follows? The cheering block does! This year, several juniors and seniors organized a cheering section for the basketball games. Only those interested in yelling and singing were allowed to sit in that area.

At the start of the season, the members were a little rowdy and got in trouble for some of their songs. But they settled down and became a major force in cheering the team on.

B. Evanich leads his famous "Coast to Coast" cheer.

Always ready to cheer is K. Mahony

The 1981 golf season revolved around six returning letter winners. The team putted its way to an 8-11 record. Five year golf coach Gary Meyer will not be returning. With the four experienced seniors returning, competition will be high for all five varsity positions in 1982. Last year's MVP was John Blastik.

The 1981 baseball season was both victorious as well as disappointing for the Oilers. Even though their record was 8-8 conference and 11-12 overall, it could easily have been better. They lost 7 conference games by 1 run.

Even though it was a difficult season 3 Oilers were able to collect individual honors:

Andrew Curosh, All-Conference pitcher; John Burosh, All-Conference honorable mention shortstop; and Tim Zahorsky, All-Conference honorable mention catcher and team most valuable player.

The Oilers are losing 5 starters but since they have such a strong bench they will hopefully be able to replace them. The Oilers showed much improvement and are looking for a winning season in 1982.

FROM ACROSS THE MILES

This year's cross country team was a young team gaining four new freshmen and a new coach, Mr. Daniels. The team's desire was strong but despite of their overall record (4-11), Audie Vasquez came in 8th in Sectionals qualifying for the Regionals finishing 12th. Their Conference record was 2-6. This year's squad will only be losing 1 letterman, Jim Rodgers. Though the team is still young, the experience gained this year will pay dividends in the future.

OILERS COME FROM BEHIND IN SEASON THRILLER!

After all the practice and learning of plays had come to an end each week, the Whiting football team went to work to try to bring victory to the school. Despite this year's 3-6 record the Oilers went out and played hard every game.

The Oilers won 3 out of their first 5 games outscoring their opponents 101-79, including a shutout win against Chicago Washington. The highlight of the season came against South Central. The Oilers trailed 21-2 at the half and then John Burosh scored three touchdowns to defeat the Satellites of South Central 26-21. A SEASON OF Many new accomplishments were gained this year in volleyball. One new thing that happened was the new formation in which the players switched positions with the setter. They also drilled themselves with spiking from all sides, blocking, setting, and most important, serves. By selling candy, the team helped pay for the new long sleeve volleyball uniforms which they received toward the end of their season. They also purchased new nets and standards. The team showed alot of teamwork and hustle this season. They ended their season with a 14-11 record.

16-5, NOT BAD FOR A ROOKIE

The 1981-82 varsity basketball team finished their season with one of the best records in the school's history, under the leadership of rookie mentor Bob Klosek. Despite the loss of Coach Meyer and five seniors, the Oilers still managed to win sixteen games and capture the Clark Holiday Tourney defeating Benton Central 57-54.

Plagued by injuries during two key conference games, Bishop Noll and Hammond High, the Oilers suffered defeats which prevented them from a share of the conference title.

Despite the five losses during the season, the Oilers were recognized as one of the best defensive teams in the area and were ranked as high as 17th in the state.

Tim Gabrish received special pre-season honors including: STREET AND SMITH'S Magazine—high Honorable Mention list for All-American and HOOSIER BASKETBALL Magazine—1st team All-State. Post season honors included: Academic All-State and All-Conference. David Polak and Andrew Curosh were also named to the All-Conference team.

YOUNG TEAM MATURES QUICKLY

The 1981-82 girls' varsity basketball team had another good season. The team's overall record was 13-6, and had a Conference record of 6-2. The last Conference game of the season, between Whiting and Bishop Noll determined whom would share the Conference title with E.C. Roosevelt. The game ended in a two point defeat for the Oilers. Thus, the Oilers placed 3rd in the Conference.

Coach Paul Laub stated that the team had matured from this experience.

This team was young, and is well on its way to being one of the best Whiting has ever had.

Coach Laub gives instructions as the team listens attentively.

A ROLLERCOASTER RIDE TO THE TOP

Coach Vrabel and his squad must have thought that they were on a rollercoaster ride winning their first eight, losing the next six, but finishing on top of the hill winning five of their last seven. Not expected to have a winning season, Coach Vrabel's team surprised the four Gary schools, and cross town rival Clark fighting back from a 15-2 deficit. They barely missed the finals in the J.V. Tourney losing to Noll by one point at the buzzer. The future looks a lot brighter for the varsity next year.

T. Summey, D. Dollins, J. Flores, M. Cooper, B. Bailey, D. Brown, D. Terry, Varsity coach Mr. Rebey.

This year the J.V. team had their best season ever. They finished with an excellent season record of 11-1.

Determination and dedication proved to be their strength as they went into their tournament prepared to come out winners. Chris Sarvanidis and Steve Jancho took first in the competition, which placed the whole team in first and also in a tie for Conference Champions.

D. Terry puts his opponent in a bit of pain.

A tired A. Vasquez struggles to gain points.

FRACTURED FOOTBALL

The 1981 Freshmen-Sophomore football team had a rough course to run as they battled touch opponents.

The team, led by experienced sophomores plus talented freshmen, equaled an Oiler squad an opponent would soon not forget.

Although the season ended with two wins and four losses, Coach Beno expressed, "We were never out of it."

J. Chorba expresses whom he thinks is #1.

The Freshman Basketball team ended their season with a record of 5-9. Although the record wasn't very impressive, the boys learned the fundamentals of high school basketball.

Under the guidance of new coach, Don Justak, the players displayed a lot of hustle and teamwork. A few of the freshmen players also played Junior Varsity games. This experience will help out the future Junior Varsity team.

NEW COACHING PROVES SUCCESSFUL

The J.V. volleyball team under the guidance of new coach, Mr. Laub ended the season with an impressive record of 24-3. Season highlights included a 15 game winning streak, 7-1 conference record, and reaching the finals of the J.V. Tournament.

Everyone is looking forward to next year when last year's mistakes will be corrected for an even better season.

Serving the winning point is R. Kantowski.

The Junior Varsity team finished the season with a respectable record of 12-6. With four returning players and six new members, they proved themselves a challenge for the opposing team.

Season highlights included a double victory over Clark and runner-up in the J.V. Tourney, losing to Gavit in the finals. With a lot of hard work over the summer, the team should be much improved.

NEW EXPERIENCE-NEW SCHOOL

Pointing out which state goes to what city is demonstrated by two history students.

O. Rodriguez has lots of homework to do tonight.

E. Perez & M. Morris show the different types of thermometers in science class.

THEY'RE NOT "BOARD"

The Board of Education is there to help, aid, and advise the Superintendent while working together for new methods to improve and develop more progressive means for the students and school system.

The principal is helped with the assistance of opinions by the faculty.

Principal, Mr. Kountoures.

If it weren't for secretaries, nothing would be filed, typed, or organized.

Board members discuss problems of management, paying bills, and the need for school equipment. They try to give students the finest opportunities available for an education.

The General Office Secretaries are Mrs. Eleanor Mustafa and Mrs. Irene Banik.

Mr. Vincent Daniels is the school's counselor.

WITH EDUCATION!

Board of Education (l to r): Charles A. Kosalko Jr., Secretary; Mildred Kubon, Vice-President; Michael T. Jurbala, President; Jerome F. Vrabel, Member; Not present at time of picture, William E. Senchak, Member.

The Administrative secretaries are Mrs. Dorothy Shaner, Mrs. Pat Kantowski, and Mrs. Marie Dado.

The school's Superintendent is Mr. Gerald Novak.

NEW TEACHERS

There have been many changes in the school this year as far as teachers are concerned. One new faculty member is Mrs. Carroll, who sits in the study hall keeping students under control. Another teacher is Mrs. Bamiagis in the reading department. Mrs. Hard teaches special students who need help in speech and hearing. Ms. Wozniak has taken over the job of teaching the junior and freshman English classes, and Mr. Boyd is the new band director.

Tomorrow,

Today!

Because tomorrow is just around the corner, and your future will depend a lot on the decisions you make today.

Your career goal is probably the single most important decision you'll make, so consider it carefully. Consider your interests and skills, and then consider working for a company that will allow you the opportunity to develop and use them effectively.

At Inland Steel we like to bring out the best in people. We do it through training programs, and by offering growth potential. We need solid employees on the production lines, in the craft apprenticeships, in our laboratories, and in the offices.

We've built a strong reputation as a first-rate steel-maker, and we built it with the help of our employees. But we don't rest on past laurels. Like you, we're looking at tomorrow.

IT MAY BE THE END—

BUT IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING

Well, here it is, the end of another year. They all seem to go by so quickly, but there are always a lot of good memories. For some it has been an ordinary year. But for others it has been a year of accomplishments, changes, and many good times.

For the seniors the end of this year brings a new beginning, college or work. And each year ends a part in every student's life, preparing them for the future.

Hopefully, for you this WASN'T JUST ANOTHER YEAR.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Putting together a yearbook takes a lot of hard work, long hours, and dedication. In the end it's all worth it. The book turns out to be a record of a year in one's high school life.

Does my layout have a dominant picture? Do I have a variety of shapes? Have I observed a one pica margin? All of these are questions that members of the Reflector staff had to ask themselves.

Although some deadlines were missed, and some pictures were left untaken, the staff worked well together. Many of the students had different responsibilities, such as photographers, ads workers and typists, but everyone played an important role on the staff.

Other people such as Mr. Lovasko, our professional photographer, are very important in helping us with our yearbook. Mr. Kingsley, our Herff Jones Representative, answered many questions brought us layout sheets whenever we ran out, and helped us design our cover.

Our advisor, Mr. Laub, was responsible for making 5th hour an enjoyable and hard-working class.

A special thanks is deserved by all who were involved in putting together the 1982 Reflector.

Staff members will say goodbye to some, and hello to others.

Editor, Karen Shebish, is ready to jump off the 3rd floor after finding out the yearbook would be distributed late.

Mr. Laub asks for a little help.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
